

CMSU BEHAVIORAL HEALTH &

DEVELOPMENTAL SERVICES

CRISIS INTERVENTION WORKERS

CMSU Behavioral Health & Developmental Services is looking for Part-time on-call Crisis Intervention Workers to cover weeknights from 5 p.m. until 8 a.m. Monday through Friday or weekends starting Friday at 5 p.m. until Monday at 8 a.m. including holidays.

CMSU is also seeking Part-time on-call Intervention Workers for coverage on weeknights and weekends for smaller spans of time, as well.

On-call Crisis Intervention workers respond to individuals experiencing psychological distress in the community, at individual's homes, hospital settings and in county prisons.

Crisis workers respond via phone and face-to-face interventions and conduct safety assessments, bed searches at hospitals and provide resources.

A valid Driver's License and vehicle are required. Training is provided. Excellent reimbursement. Bachelor's Degree required.

To apply, please send a resume to CMSU Behavioral Health, Attn: Cathy Cashner, 507 East Market Street, Danville, PA 17821 or ccashner@cmsu.org. Please contact (570) 275-4962 with questions.

CMSU is an Equal Opportunity Employer.